2. The "Marco Pietrobono ONLUS" is a non-profit Organization NPO that was constituted in July 2013 and is located in Rome (tax-exempt status under control of the Italian laws). The Association was created to remember Marco Pietrobono, who died in a road accident in June 2013. The aim of the Association is to raise funds in order to support children and teenagers with health, social and economic difficulties. The activities of the Association include, among others: the promotion of solidarity, the realization of charity events, proposals aimed at helping children and teenagers who find themselves in situations of need.

The Association is currently involved in the realization of four key projects. We carry out activities within the projects:

> From 2015: PROJECT "INVITATION TO READ". The project aims to organize meetings of creative reading with children of the elementary and middle classes in public or private schools.

4. supporting the acquisition of a language as rich and varied as better as possible through the revival and experimentation in musical forms of his verbal and para-verbal elements such as rhythm, prosody, the speaking rate, intensity, breaks;
5. leading to the conquest of autonomy and supporting the fundamental confidence in their ability through the pursuit of operational and intentional capabilities; and full awareness of the capabilities present in each one;
6. encouraging creativity: to offer new and multiples stimuli;
7. used to the "combination" of simple elements in order to improve the spontaneous expressions;
8. giving an opportunity to overcome the dichotomy between intuition and impulse-discipline creativity;
9. appreciating and using not-verbal ways of self-expression, characteristics of young people with severe disorders of communication.

METHODOLOGY

The "artistic" proposal that the therapist will aim to the children and young people trends to the direct involvement of the children, through the production of simple objects, or the sound of the voice, the use of the body and simple musical tools specifically designed for teaching and music therapy.

The relationship with the therapist and, if present, with the group, is built in a playful atmosphere and takes the shape, among others, of a sound dialogue according to a path that leads from the informal experimentation alternating sound/noise and silence, towards an ever greater structuring rhythmic-melodic.

During this exploration, in couple and/or in a group, of the physical and sonorous world the sound plays an important role and listening to the music becomes part of the movement of the music itself, which can be achieved under form of simple dances and pantomimes, according to the principle of the adjustment of a given spontaneous rhythm.

The Students with disabilities also participate in the activities together with non-disabled students (who will alternate)with whom they share the daily school day.

MATERIALS

The involved students will have materials for easy consumption, pastels and tempera, as well as a selection of Orff instruments, including drum, tambourine, Basque triangles of various sizes, maracas, castanets, plates and saucers, whistle, sticks, two-tone, pole rain, thunder tube, as well as semi-professional musical instruments (guitar, keyboard); illustrated books, voice recorder and microphone.

The amount received by Ipsos Foundation will be entirely spent to fund the activities of young people with disabilities who need help, because the administrative costs are zero. All staff who work for the Marco Pietrobono Onlus is voluntary and does not receive salaries or refunds.
