Taking Responsibility - Marco Pietrobono

Today, the focus is on the Marco Pietrobono charity in Italy.

9 May 2016 CSR / Taking Responsibility / Education

To date, the Ipsos Foundation has made donations to 10 charities. Today, the focus is on the Marco Pietrobono charity in Italy. Named after a teenager tragically killed in a road accident, the charity supports children with health, social and economic difficulties.

The Ipsos Foundation has awarded €8900 for their "Easy Education" that will benefit 40 children aged 6-14, suffering from autism and specific learning difficulties.
